

STOLEN NOTEBOOK? ALL IS NOT LOST!

Your Notebook
has been located.

HP Notebook PC Tracking and Recovery Service.

HP Care Pack Enhanced Protection for peace of mind.

THE COMPUTER
IS PERSONAL
AGAIN.

What if your Notebook goes missing?

Imagine your Notebook is lost or, even worse, stolen. Imagine your critical business data and passwords falling into the wrong hands. How much time and money would it cost your business to recover?

With HP Notebook PC Tracking and Recovery Service you can quickly and easily delete data remotely and get on with what matters most to you, your business.

What does it do?

It's like having your own IT security team on duty all the time.

HP Notebook PC Tracking and Recovery Service tells you where your hardware and data are, and, if needed, can delete data remotely and help you recover your stolen Notebook.

How does it work?

See how easy it is to keep your data protected? To make sure the service is up and running, simply register your PC and activate your account. Then let HP Tracking and Recovery Services take care of the rest!

What's included? **

Notebook PC Tracking Service

When you connect to the monitoring center, a location tracking program provides you with the physical location of the Notebook as soon as it is connected to the Internet.

Data Security Service

Remotely and permanently destroys all user data—everything but the operating systems and programs.

Secure Remote IT Asset Management

Gives user or company IT department remote access to inventory of installed hardware and software.

Is it right for my business?

For the monthly cost of a few cups of tea or coffee, your business gets:

- Protection for confidential and sensitive business data if the PC is reported lost or stolen thanks to the remote data delete feature
- Quick and accurate PC tracking to protect your hardware assets and aid in the recovery of stolen PCs
- Protection from potentially-costly data breaches
- Remote IT Asset Management that detects missing or unauthorized software, for instance
- Total peace of mind, even if your PC is lost or stolen

* Available only for HP Compaq Business Notebook PCs.

 Availability of HP Tracking Services and HP Recovery Services may vary by country. Check with your local HP Partner for details.

For peace of mind.
